

Who Am I?

Can you answer this question? If not, here are some clues.

BASIC/GENERAL

A) I am an American television journalist. I have had a long career working for several different television news programs. I started out as a weather reporter in my home state of Kentucky. In the 1970s, I worked for President Richard Nixon.

B) My big break in television came in 1978, when I was hired by the CBS television network as a political reporter. Since then, I've worked for many news programs, including "60 Minutes" and "20/20." Since 1999, I have been a host of "Good Morning America."

C) I have been hired to be the next anchor of the ABC television network's show "World News." An "anchor" is the host of a news program. I am only the fourth female anchor of an evening network news show.

Who am I? (Diane Sawyer.)

ADVANCED

A) At age 63, I have had a long career as a network television journalist, but I started out as a weather reporter in my native Kentucky. In 1970, I was hired to work for the press office of President Richard Nixon.

B) My big break in national television came in 1978, when I was hired by CBS as a political correspondent. Since then, I have worked for several network news shows, including "60 Minutes," "Primetime Live," and "20/20." Since 1999, I have been the co-anchor of "Good Morning America" on ABC.

C) Recently it was announced that I would be the next anchor of ABC's "World News." I will be only the fourth woman to host an evening network news show. Who am I? (Diane Sawyer.) Who is the other current female network news anchor? (Katie Couric.)